HOW TO COLLECT AFTER YOU RECEIVE A JUDGMENT

Once you have obtained a judgment, the next step is to collect the money owed to you on your judgment. This instruction sheet indicates step by step the various procedures you may follow in collecting the money owed when the Judgment Debtor has refused to voluntarily pay you the amount of your judgment plus court costs.

The Small Claims Court office will not prepare the legal papers for you; however, personnel will be available if you need assistance in completing any of the forms described in this instruction sheet.

It is important that you keep your current address and phone number on file with the Court during the time you have an active Judgment.

NOTE: If the Judgment Debtor is in Bankruptcy, no collection actions shall be filed.

1. BANK ATTACHMENT: SAVINGS OR CHECKING (Complete packet may be obtained at the Clerk's Office)

To execute on a savings and/or checking account of your judgment debtor, you must obtain the name, address and branch of the bank in which the account is deposited, along with the exact name and account number, if possible.

Having obtained the above information, you must complete the Bank Attachment forms (see samples attached hereto). The Affidavit needs to be signed in the presence of a Notary or Deputy Clerk. The Court fee for filing a Bank Attachment is $60.00. A $1.00 check made payable to the bank receiving the Attachment must also be included.

Response time vary from bank to bank, however, the Court should receive a response on the Attachment Order within two weeks. If money is paid in on the attachment, the Court will make distribution to the appropriate party within thirty (30) days.

2. GARNISHMENT OF WAGES

(Complete packet may be obtained at the Clerk's Office)

The first step is to complete the form called "Notice of Court Action to Collect Debt" (sample attached hereto). After completing the top portion of the form and making a copy for your records, mail this form by certified mail, return receipt requested or certificate of mailing to the judgment debtor at his/her usual place of residence.

At least fifteen (15) days, but no more than forty-five (45) days, after sending this form, you may file with the Clerk's office, the forms to complete the Garnishment proceedings (see samples attached hereto). After completing the forms, be sure to include a copy of the "Notice of Court Action to Collect Debt" and your return received from certified mail or certificate of mailing or unclaimed letter. The Deputy Clerk will collect the $140.00 filing fee for the Garnishment. The Garnishment that the Clerk forwards to the employer is good for 182 days without re-filing the paperwork. If after the 182 days has expired and your judgment is unsatisfied, you may repeat this procedure.

3. REVOCATION OF THE JUDGMENT DEBTOR'S DRIVING PRIVILEGES

If your Judgment is for personal injury or damage caused through the negligent operation of a motor vehicle by the Judgment Debtor, you may send a certified copy of the Judgment to the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, requesting the revocation of the Judgment Debtor's driving privileges in the State of Ohio. The court costs for the certified copy of the Judgment is $5.00. Mail the certified copy to:

Bureau of Motor Vehicles

Attn: MVOS

P.O. Box 16520

Columbus, OH 43216

Phone No: (614) 863-7526

The more information about the judgment debtor (date of birth, social security number, driver's license number, etc) you include, the less trouble you will have in getting the Bureau of Motor Vehicles to revoke the Judgment Debtor's driver's license.

4. JUDGMENT LIENS

If you know that the Judgment Debtor owns real estate in a particular county, you can easily obtain a Judgment Lien on his/her real estate by obtaining a Certificate of Judgment and filing same. Although obtaining such a lien will probably not cause the Judgment Debtor to immediately pay you on your judgment, it will guarantee that the Judgment Debtor's real estate cannot be transferred without dealing with your Judgment Lien. It is a simple, inexpensive, yet effective way of obtaining some assurance that your judgment will be paid.

To obtain a Certificate of Judgment (CJ), you must file a request to issue a CJ with the Clerk of the Court where you obtained your Judgment and pay the filing fee of $30.00. After you have obtained the CJ, you must file it in the Common Pleas Court of the county in which the real estate owned by the Judgment Debtor is located. After you have filed your Judgment Lien, you should advise the Judgment Debtor that you have filed a lien on his/her real estate and that it will not be removed until he/she pays you the amount of your judgment. This may be enough to cause the Judgment Debtor to begin payment. You must be sure to cancel the CJ when the amount of Judgment has been paid in full.

5. EXECUTION OF PROPERTY

To attach property is costly, complicated, and knowledge of the law regarding this will be required. It is considered to be more practical in this case to consult an attorney.

6. DEBTOR'S EXAMINATION

When there is no knowledge of the Judgment Debtor's assets, the Clerk will provide you with forms for a Debtor's Examination (see sample attached hereto). The filing fee is $40 and includes service by certified mail. If personal service is desired, you must prepare Instructions for Service. For Bailiff Service, if Judgment Debtor resides in our jurisdiction, the filing fee is $30. For Sheriff Service, if Judgment Debtor resides outside our jurisdiction, a $50 deposit is required and you must include the name and address of the Sheriff's Department in your Instructions for Service.

The Judgment Debtor is summoned to Court, put under oath and you ask questions regarding his/her assets. If the Judgment Debtor fails to appear, you may consider filing contempt charges.

7. MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE FOR CONTEMPT

When a Judgment Debtor failed to make an ORDERED Court appearance, they may be found in Contempt of Court for failure to appear (if they were personally served).

WHEN PAYMENT IN FULL IS RECEIVED, YOU ARE REQUIRED TO NOTIFY THE COURT IMMEDIATELY SO THAT A SATISFACTION OF JUDGMENT MAY BE PREPARED AND FILED.

SECTION A. COURT ORDER AND NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT

TO: _____ NAME & ADDRESS OF EMPLOYER _____, GARNISHEE
(name and address of Employer)

The Judgment Creditor in the above case has filed an affidavit, satisfactory to the undersigned, in this court stating that you may owe the Judgment Debtor money for personal earnings. You are therefore ordered to complete the "Answer of Employer (Garnishee)" in Section B of this form. Return one completed and signed copy of this form to the clerk of this court within five (5) business days after you receive this order of garnishment. Deliver one completed and signed copy of this form and the accompanying documents entitled "Notice to the Judgment Debtor" and "Request for Hearing" to the Judgment Debtor. Keep the other completed copy of this form for your files. The total probable amount now due on this judgment is $ TOTAL OWING (The total probable amount due includes the unpaid portion of the judgment in favor of the Judgment Creditor, which is $ JUDGMENT AMOUNT interest on that judgment and, if applicable, prejudgment interest relative to that judgment at the rate of INTEREST PERCENTAGE% per annum payable until that judgment is satisfied in full; and court costs in the amount of $ COURT COSTS)

This garnishment order of personal earnings is a continuous order that generally requires you to withhold a specified amount, calculated each pay period at the statutory percentage, of the judgment debtor's personal disposable earnings during each pay period, as determined in accordance with the "Interim Report and Answer of (Garnishee)" from the Judgment Debtor's personal disposable earnings during each pay period of the Judgment Debtor commencing with the first full pay period beginning after you receive the order until the judgment in favor of the Judgment Creditor and the associated court costs, judgment interest, and, if applicable, prejudgment interest awarded to the judgment creditor as described above have been paid in full. You generally must pay that specified amount calculated each pay period at the statutory percentage to the clerk of this court within thirty (30) days after the end of each pay period of the judgment debtor and must include with that specified amount calculated each pay period at the statutory percentage an "Interim Report and Answer of Garnishee" substantially in the form set forth in section 2716.07 of the Ohio Revised Code. A copy of the "Interim Report and Answer of Garnishee" is attached to this order of garnishment of personal earnings, and you may photocopy it to use each time you pay the specified amount to the clerk of this court, you are permitted to deduct a processing fee of up to three dollars from the judgment debtor's personal disposable earnings for any pay period of the judgment debtor that an amount was withheld for that order (the processing fee is not a part of the court costs). You are not required to file with the court "Interim Report and Answer of Garnishee" for any pay period of the Judgment Debtor for which an amount from the Judgment Debtor's personal disposable earnings during that pay period was not withheld for that order.

This garnishment order will generally remain in effect until one of the following occurs:

- 1) The total probable amount due on the judgment as described above is paid in full as a result of your withholding the specified amount, calculated each pay period at the statutory percentage, from the Judgment Debtor's personal disposable earnings during each pay period of the judgment debtor that commenced with the first full pay period beginning after you received the order.
- 2) The judgment Creditor or the Judgment Creditor's attorney files with this court a written notice that the total probable amount due on the judgment as described above has been satisfied or the Judgment Creditor or the Judgment Creditor's attorney files a written request to terminate this order of Garnishment and release you from the mandate of this order of Garnishment.
- 3) A municipal or county court appoints a trustee for the Judgment Debtor and issues to you an order that stays this order of garnishment of personal earnings.
- 4) A federal bankruptcy court issues to you an order staying this order of garnishment of personal earnings.
- 5) A municipal or county court or a common pleas court issues to you another order of garnishment of personal earnings that relates to the Judgment Debtor and a different judgment creditor and Ohio or federal law provides the other order with a higher priority than this order.
- 6) A municipal or county court or a common pleas court issues to you another order of garnishment of personal earnings that relates to the Judgment Debtor and a different judgment creditor and that does not have a higher priority than this order.
- 7) The Judgment Creditor or the Judgment Creditor's attorney files with this court a written request to terminate and release the order of Garnishment, and as a result, the order of Garnishment will cease to remain in effect.

Under any of the circumstances listed above, you are required to file with this court a "Final Report and Answer of Garnishee" substantially in the form set forth in section 2716.08 of the Ohio Revised Code. A copy of the "Final Report and Answer of Garnishee" is attached to this order of garnishment of personal earnings. Under the circumstances listed in (5) and (6) above, you must cease processing this order of garnishment after the expiration of the full pay period within which the one hundred eighty-second (182) day after you began processing it falls.

Special stacking, priority of payment, and manner of payment rules apply when a garnishee receives multiple orders of garnishment with respect to the same judgment debtor. These rules are set forth in section 2716.041 of the Ohio Revised Code. An employer guide to processing continuous orders of garnishment is included with this order of Garnishment and you should become familiar with them.

Witness my hand and the seal of this court this _____ day of _____, 20_____.

Judgment Debtor

You are hereby notified that this court has issued an order in the above case in favor of the judgment creditor in this proceeding, directing that some of your personal earnings, be used in satisfaction of your debt to the judgment creditor instead of being paid to you. This order was issued on the basis of the judgment creditor's judgment against you that was obtained in OAKWOOD MUNICIPAL COURT in the above case no. on JUDGMENT DATE.

The law of Ohio provides that you are entitled to keep a certain amount of your personal earnings free from the claims of creditors. Additionally, wages under a certain amount may never be used to satisfy the claims of creditors. The documents entitled "ORDER AND NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT AND ANSWER OF EMPLOYER" that are enclosed with this notice show how the amount proposed to be taken out of your personal earnings was calculated by your employer.

If you dispute the judgment creditor's right to garnishee your personal earnings and believe that you are entitled to possession of the personal earnings because they are exempt or if you feel that this order is improper for any reason, you may request a hearing before this court by disputing the claim in the request for hearing form, accompanying this notice, or in a substantially similar form, and delivering the request for hearing to this court at the above address, at the office of the Clerk of this Court, no later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice. You may state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's right to garnish your personal earnings in the space provided on the form; however, you are not required to do so. If you do state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's right, you are not prohibited from stating any other reason at the hearing. If you do not state your reasons, it will not be held against you by the court and you can state your reasons at the hearing. NO OBJECTIONS TO THE JUDGMENT ITSELF WILL BE HEARD OR CONSIDERED AT THE HEARING. The hearing will be limited to a consideration of the amount of your personal earnings, if any, that can be used in satisfaction of the judgment you owe to the judgment creditor.

If you request a hearing by delivering your "Request for Hearing" no later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice, it will be conducted no later than twelve days after your request is received by the court and the court will send you notice of the date, time and a place. You may indicate on the form that you believe that the need for the hearing is an emergency and that it should be given priority by the court. If you do so, the court will schedule the hearing as soon as practicable after your request is received, and will send you notice of the date, time and place. If you do not request a hearing by delivering your request for hearing, no later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice, some of your personal earnings will be paid to the judgment creditor.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, you may contact the office of the Clerk of this Court. If you want legal representation, you should contact your lawyer immediately. If you need the name of a lawyer, contact the local Bar Association.
